SOUVENIR

Received in This City Yesterday From a Maysville Lady in the East That Is Interesting.

Prof. W. T. Berry was yesterday displaying a souvenir received from his daughter, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, that was interesting.

It was a piece of rope taken from the first lifeboat to land at Atlantic City with survivors from the sunken steamer Carolina, which was torpedoed by a Hun submarine.

Mrs. Hamilton had passed over this same route last week from Jacksonville, Fla., to Atlantic City, and had counted herself lucky at the narrow escape she had made and secured a small piece of rope off the life boat shortly after it landed with its ten men, eight women and one child and sent it to her father, who placed it on exhibition in the show window of Hendrickson's Paint Store on West Second street.

It does seem that there is some one from Maysville almost at every happening of any consequence on earth, even in the front line trenches.

CAME HOME INJURED

Mr. Owen Laffer of East Second street, who has been employed on bridge construction in West Virginia, met with a painful accident at Fairmount, a heavy piece of iron falling and striking him on the leg, considerably bruising that member. He arrived home yesterday to recuperate, and his friends hope the injury will not prove serious.

SOME OFFER

Yesterday a tobacco raiser from Brown county, Ohio, came to this city in quest of men to go help him set his tobacco crop. Asking several and offering all kinds of inducements, he finally went the limit and offered the union scale, $15 per day—and he didn't get a single one. His women and children, he said, had worked until they could go no longer, and as the "season" doesn't last all summer he came here for reinforcements. This is the highest price ever offered here for this kind of work, and it does seem as if it should have been the means of procuring sufficient help for this farmer.

INDEPENDENT-CENTRAL ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Independent-Central Tobacco Warehouse in this city Messrs. Walter Matthews, Mr. W. L. Kilpatrick, M. C. Crawford and George R. Longnecker were chosen directors, and the following officers were elected:

President—Walter Matthews.
Vice President—L. C. Parker.
Secretary—W. H. Robb.
Treasurer—W. F. Steele.

The business of these two warehouses last season was very satisfactory to the officers and they are working for a large increase this season.

Mrs. Margaret Bauer of Arnheim, Ohio, is here at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Lottie Spromberg, who remains in a critical condition at her home on Commerce street.

MARINES PUSH FORWARD

AMERICANS AND FRENCH SHOULD TO SHOULDER IN FIERCE FIGHTING.

Three Hundred Prisoners and a Number of Machine Guns Taken by Marines in Advance—Losses of Americans Necessarily Heavy, But Germans Are Left Pinned Three Deep in Places.

With the American Army in Picardy, June 7—As the result of the two attempts by the Americans against the enemy in the second battle northwest of Chateau Thierry, 300 prisoners were captured and the Americans extended their line over a front of about six miles to a depth of nearly 2½ miles.

While the losses of the Americans necessarily have been heavy, owing to the nature of the fighting, the German dead is piled three deep in places. A number of machine guns were added to the American booty.

There has been no let up in the offensive of the American and French troops against the Germans in the region northwest of Chateau Thierry, where in the past two days severe defeats have been inflicted on the enemy, and American marines have won great praise for their valiant fighting.

Battling shoulder to shoulder over a front of six miles from Vinly, which lies just to the northwest of Veully La Poterie, to Boursches, the Americans and French have captured the towns of Veully La Poterie and Boursches and also made progress all along the front. Previously Torcy had fallen into the hands of the Americans.

Nowhere on this battle line have the Germans been able to stay the efforts of the Allied troops, although they have fought with great tenacity.

The marines everywhere have declined to take a backward step, going forward against the enemy, even when he had superiority in numbers. Close pressed the marines have given the Germans a taste of cold steel, even in the face of machine gun fire, surrounded they have fought their way through the gray coated lines with their bayonet. From all accounts there has been no part of the game of modern warfare in which the men from overseas have not excelled the enemy.

The losses to the enemy thus far are declared to have been extremely heavy and the terrain they have lost is considered of high strategic value, inasmuch as it is on that part of the battle front through which the Germans had hoped to crush their way forward and attain an open road to Paris.

The casualties of the enemy were particularly severe during the street fighting in Boursches, where the Americans pushed him back step by step.

The plans of the American command did not include the capture of Torcy, but when the Marines reached the objective assigned to them their ardor for battle could not be restrained, and they kept on until the village was in their hands. Twenty-five of the marines drove out two hundred Germans from Torcy.

Hard held on the other sectors from Soissons to Chateau Thierry the Germans, after very heavy bombardments have essayed attacks on the Marne front near Rheims. These attacks were ill-starred, and the enemy had to accept defeat. A French attack at Bligny resulted in that village falling into their hands in its entirety.

On the remainder of the battle fronts, there is still slight activity, aside from bombardments and patrol encounters.

CROWDER PROBES DRAFT

Orders Re-Examination of the Lists—Some of Boards Imposed Upon, Is Belief of the Provost Marshal General.

Washington, June 7—With the double purpose of increasing the number of men available for military service and of issuing fairer administration of the selective service law, Provost Marshal General Crowder today telegraphed Governors of all states, asking immediate re-investigation of the draft classification list everywhere.

Class one already exhausted in some localities by the repeated calls, contains 28.7 per cent of all the registrants, according to the national average, but percentages in the 4,500 local exemption boards districts vary most materially, both up and down from the average figure.

By "slacker" and ungrounded claims of right to industrial or agricultural exemption General Crowder believes, some registrants have imposed upon the burdened local boards to escape service while in other districts an application of the regulations have been perhaps stricter than is intended. The governors and the agents are asked to investigate and upon evidence to ask boards to re-classify men. Assistance of the public through supplying information to the boards also is asked.

It was said today that with the exhaustion of class one, unskilled farm laborers whom the boards have been allowed to place at the bottom, will have to go to cantonments. There will be no chance in this policy and the only relief, it is declared will come from enforcement of the "work or fight" order generally.

Following are the states in which some counties fell below even a ten per cent classification in class one: California, New Mexico, Iowa, Ohio, Kentucky, North Carolina, Missouri, New York, Massachusetts.

BINDER TWINE

All dealers handling binder twine are advised that a margin of two cents (2c) per pound cash, or its equivalent, and two and one half (2½c) per pound on credit, above the manufacturers price of twenty-three cents (23c) per pound, will not be considered unreasonable, but any more than that taken by retail merchants will be subject to serious investigation.

UNBREAKABLE LAWS

The Fuel Administration has issued a statement declaring among other things that because of the war and the demands that are being made for various essential products, "it is obvious that the law of supply and demand has broken down." Last winter when the demand for coal far exceeded the supply, the people of the country were pretty firmly of the opinion that the law of supply and demand was very much in force, notwithstanding the efforts of Mr. Garfield to ignore it. Recently, the truck growers of a Southern community wired Food Administrator Hoover that 800 carloads of cabbages were rotting in the fields for want of a market and asked him for help. He replied that the supply exceeded the demand and he could suggest no remedy. The growers of those cabbages are doubtless of the opinion that the law of supply and demand is still in force, notwithstanding the effort of some people to set it aside or ignore it. The law of supply and demand will break down at the same time the law of gravitation does.

IN THE TWILIGHT

It is possible to believe that all the past is but the beginning of a beginning, and that all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn. It is possible to believe that all that the human mind has ever accomplished is but the dream before the awakening. We cannot see, there is no need for us to see, what this world will be like when the day has fully come. We are creatures of the twilight. But it is out of our race and lineage that minds will spring that will reach back to us in our littleness to know us better than we know ourselves, and that will reach forward fearlessly to comprehend this future that defeats our eyes.

"NEW WAYS OF FEEDING THE WORLD"

For many years an effort has been made to attract Luther Burbank to the lecture platform, but the plant wizard has been so busy with his scientific work that he has steadfastly refused to be inveigled into appearing before the public. He has realized, however, that there is a great interest in his work and so he has given his permission to have his friend and confidant to Dr. Henry A. Adrian of Santa Barbara, Cal., appear and tell the story of the plant wizard's achievements.

Dr. Adrian's new lecture upon the subject, "New Ways of Feeding the World" is a most pertinent contribution to the Win-The-War.

Dr. Adrian believes that the world is actually facing starvation. Propaganda. He does not believe, however, that it will starve. His lecture tells how the new situation is to be faced and how the battle is to be won. It is a tremendously interesting and informing lecture. He will appear upon the opening day of the Chautauqua.

Anyhow, the June bride's love can't grow cold in July or August.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic. Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

FUEL OIL

Must Be Conserved, Says Commissioner of Public Roads.

The following letter which is self-explanatory is published at the request of Mr. Rodman Wiley, Commissioner of Public Roads:
Mr. Rodman Wiley, Commissioner of Public Roads, Frankfort, Ky.
Dear Sir:

In order that the fuel oil requirements of our Allies, as well as of our own Army and Navy, and essential war industries may be fully satisfied, it is found necessary to limit the use of petroleum and coal in the manufacture of road products, such as asphalt, road binders, road oils, tar binders or dressings.

The United States is now being drawn upon to an ever increasing extent for petroleum products, especially fuel oil. It will be appreciated that this demand must be satisfied. Commencing this date we request that all highway work in your State of any character, including municipal work, involving the use of the above mentioned materials, be passed upon by your State Highway Department. A special permit of the Fuel Administration, Oil Division, will be required before delivery of purchases will be authorized.

Enclosed you will find forms on which all applications for the above mentioned road materials must be made. Preference will be given to material for maintenance purposes and repair work. The supply of the above material for road work is so limited that it is required that all new construction involving these materials be deferred this year except where such work is necessary toward winning the war. These forms should be filled out covering maintenance, reconstruction or new construction and certified to by the State Highway Department as to the vital necessity of the work under existing war conditions and the quantity of the material involved. They should then be mailed to Mr. L. W. Page, Director, Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, D. C. Mr. Page acting as Chairman of a committee which will consider the necessity of the material being supplied and make their recommendation to the Oil Division of the Fuel Administration, which will issue permits in accordance with the recommendation when the necessary material is available.

It is requested that you give this matter full publicity, so that all parties concerned will be familiar with the procedure necessary to procure supply of these materials.

Additional supply of enclosed forms can be procured on application to Mr. Page.

PATRIOTIC PAYMENT OF FAIR PREMIUMS

Why not give War Savings Stamps to prize winners at agricultural fairs, asks the Department of Agriculture. The Bureau of Agriculture of the Lake Charles, Louisiana, Chamber of Commerce has suggested that all premiums given by State and other fairs this year be paid in War Savings Stamps. A resolution expressing that proposal was recently adopted by this Bureau of Agriculture and is being sent to all Federal and State officials interested and to the proper representatives of fair associations in every part of the country. The idea is meeting with hearty approval.

Also it may as well be confessed that it is difficult for a man to look important in a short coat and patched pants.

by the Autopiano Company, one of the pioneer builders of Player Pianos. You can play the Pianista in the ordinary way, and daughter can take her music lessons on it. By a clever device the Piano is opened, exposing the Music Roll and Treadles, then father, mother or any of the family can use it as a player piano, thereby enjoying their favorite music—anything they may choose. When the occasion calls for something different in music, turn a convenient little lever, and the result:

PERFECT UKULELE MUSIC
The Player and Ukulele combined produce the most pleasing airs and effects—a popular home entertainer. BEAR IN MIND that all Pianistas are equipped with the Autopiano Company's very ingenious and successful patented "Automatic Tracking Device." No matter if the Music Rolls swell or shrink—which they all do—THIS Tracker automatically causes the rolls to reproduce correctly, with almost human intelligence.

There are other advantages to numerous to mention which you will readily appreciate when you make us a personal call to see and hear the Pianista.

On last week a prominent manufacturer who purchased a Pianista of Steinway & Sons, who told the writer of this announcement that if he could not buy another like it, he would not take double the price paid for his. Name and address given to any one interested.

The only reason why you haven't decided to send a Pianista with the wonderful Ukulele attachment home is because you haven't heard it.

COMMERCE CERTAIN TO BOOM UNDER PROPOSED TRANS- PORTATION SYSTEMS

New York—Within a year, if the war be so long continued, the chances are excellent that there will be adequate co-operation and co-ordination between the land and water transportation systems which will bear an important relation to the commerce that will center at South Atlantic and gulf ports. This will be possible only through the Government control of the transportation over land and water under Director-General McAdoo.

The great minds which were occupied about 20 years or more ago in perfecting, simplifying and co-ordinating a Southern railroad system were inspired to that action in part by their belief that the Southern ports upon the Atlantic and upon the gulf would offer especial advantage to commerce, although at that time the commerce which was chiefly in mind was that which would be established between the West Indies, Central American States and South America, both by way of the Panama Canal and by way of the Atlantic.

The Railroad Administration and Shipping Boards are now attempting to perfect working connections between the ports and the railroads with intent to have commerce more evenly distributed among the ports. If that can be done then much of the excessive volume of trade with which the railroads that carried traffic to and from the Northern ports have been overburdened, would be relieved, because no small part of this traffic can, by direction of the Government authorities, be diverted to railroads that are not overburdened and that have direct connection with Southern ports.

This somewhat difficult problem to solve has been placed in the hands of a committee, which is to be known as Port, Harbor and Terminal Improvement, Commission. Highly competent men are members of this commission. The chairman of it is Edward F. Hurley, who is Director of Operations of the Shipping Board. So also the army and navy are to be represented on this commission. Other individual members are Benjamin L. Winchell, Samuel M. Felton, Captain A. C. Hodgson, Geo. S. Dearborn, J. H. Rossiter and Edwin F. Gay.

Should this commission be able, as it probably will be, to solve the problem speedily, then there will be established complete and efficient integration of the land and water systems at the Atlantic and the gulf ports. This should be of almost incalculable advantage to the Government should the war be continued another year or more, but it will also be of inestimable importance in maintaining and increasing our foreign trade when the time of peace comes. One of the authorities who have been considering this question recently said:

"One of the big questions with which this commission is to deal involves the best method of shortening land hauls, thereby relieving some of the railroads and at the same time increasing the volume of the traffic hauled by others."

There are now upon the South Atlantic and the gulf ports as good as any over which our flag floats to which traffic, provided railroad co-operation can be perfected, can be economically and satisfactorily forwarded. If this be done no small part of the congestion at New York Harbor will be relieved. One of the reasons why there has been delay in transporting supplies across the sea is to be found in the congested condition at New York.

Before the war much the greater part of the imports of the United States and substantially one half of the exports were concentrated in the harbor of New York. Many were the attempts made to divert traffic to other parts, but these were on the whole unsuccessful. It is partly due to that tendency which was established long before the war began, and which has made New York the pre-eminent commercial port that this congestion of traffic in New York Harbor has continued.

It should be to the advantage of New York if a considerable part of the traffic were diverted to Southern ports. For in that way New York can handle commercial business which comes to it and which will always be large, more expeditiously than it is now possible to handle it.

One of the latest and certainly one of the greatest of the achievements of the late Norman B. Ream is now visibly demonstrated at Charleston. It furnishes an object lesson whereby is taught the value of utilizing by a railroad good Southern port facilities. Mr. Ream, with a few associates, planned and then constructed one of the best of America's railroads so far as science and equipment are concerned, whereby the Clinchfield coal district was made available for industry.

The railroad proper terminates at Spartanburg, S. C. At that point connection is made with another road by means of which Charleston is reached.

Mr. Ream contemplated the erection of great coal terminal facilities at Charleston. He did not live long enough to see the completion of his plans. But now at Charleston there is established one of the finest export coal terminals found anywhere in the world. The most highly improved modern apparatus for handling coal has there been installed. It compares favorably with the apparatus which is used at Duluth, whereby iron ore is placed upon the lake steamers. This terminal plant can now handle about 2,000 tons an hour. And, in fact, it will handle in one day as much coal as was exported through Charleston in the entire year of 1913.

"IN A BAD WAY"

Many a Maysville Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information.

If your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; If urinary troubles set in, Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Local evidence proves their merit. Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second Street, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble."

Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

The railroad runs its tracks directly to the port terminal. Within a year probably other railroads will have completed connection between their terminals and the docks and piers that are now being established in some of the great ports of the South Atlantic Coast and upon the Gulf Coast. This is likely to be especially true of Mobile, whence presumably a very large commerce with South America through the Panama Canal will be established speedily, even though the war interferes with the highest development of that commerce.

TOBACCO AS WAR RATION

(New York World)

As to the order of the War Department making tobacco an army ration the wonder will be that it was not issued long ago. Thus far the chief sources of supply have been private agencies, which, admirably conducted as they are, can hardly have met the situation among the regular rations, even with a small allowance, the department does more than relieve the expeditionary forces of what in some cases was an expense. It guarantees the delivery of goods in places beyond the reach of any other instrumentality, benevolent or commercial.

There are many well-meaning people who regard the tobacco habit as a deadly vice, and it is possible that we shall hear from them. We are to remember, however, that with the first arrival of American troops in France General Pershing authorized the use by them of light wines, as is the custom of the country. If our severe prohibitionists have not found it necessary to upset the entire war program, on this account perhaps the hardly less abstemious anti-tobacco propaganda will wink at the soldier which fighting men may be able to derive daily from tw-fifths of an ounce of plug-cut or four soul-destroying cigarettes.

Wednesday 2 p. m. will be held the closing exercises of the Eighth Grade graduating class. This program will be given in the High School auditorium. Mrs. Anna F. Ball presenting the certificates. The Eighth Grade folks have quite an interesting program consisting of patriotic drills, some of the poetry of the war and other patriotic and timely essays and orations. There will be a spirited debate on the war between two of Mrs. Ball's and two of Mr. Barnes' boys.

Wednesday evening 8 p. m. the annual commencement of the Colored High School will be held at the Washington Opera House. They have a very interesting program built around the subject of what the negro should do to assist the country during war times.

Thursday 8 p. m. will be the commencement of the Maysville High School. There are thirty in the graduating class. Dr. Frank L. McVey president of the University of Kentucky will be the speaker of the evening. Frank Browning as Second Honor pupil will deliver the Salutatory and Frances Marsh as First Honor pupil will deliver the Valedictory. Dr. J. H. Samuel as president of the Board of Education will present the diplomas. Dr. McVey is one of the influential educators of the United States, formerly president of the State University of North Dakota, while there his ability was recognized by the government. We feel especially honored in getting Dr. McVey to be with us at this time.

The following is the colored graduating class: Henry Jackson, Florence Lang, Ambrosia Beckett, Mary F. Ewing, Nancy C. Carter, Clara P. Hall, Vergie M. Blue, Allen P. Owens, Beatrice M. Williams.

The Maysville High School Commencement program for the Class of 1918 has many attractive numbers on its program.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE SALE AND USE OF WHEAT FLOUR

1. No family is permitted to buy more than six pounds of wheat flour per month per each member of his family.

2. No wheat flour must be sold without an equal number of pounds of some one or more of the substitutes, although certificates may still be taken.

3. No dealer can sell wheat flour to any family when the amount sold added to the amount on hand makes more than a thirty days supply when used on a six pound per capita basis.

4. All dealers are required to keep a record of all flour sales in a book kept for the purpose, so that it may be checked up by Auditor at any time necessary. These entries must be in the name of the head of the family only, and showing the date, number in the family, and amount sold.

5. Dealers must sell flour to keepers of restaurants, boarding houses and hotels on the basis of six pounds of wheat products for each ninety meals served.

6. Warn all people against the danger of buying more than six pounds of flour per month, per each member of the family, or of having more than thirty days supply on hand at any one time.

These are Government regulations furnished you for your guidance and must be strictly observed.
